Re: Monique Hodison-Stokes

Dear Madam/Sir:

I am honored that Monique has come to me to ask for a letter of recommendation. It has been my pleasure to not only know Monique for the better part of the last decade, but to also have the privilege of working alongside of her for many of those years. As a colleague and fellow worker, I was able to observe her in the easy as well as difficult times.

Simply put, one doesn't have to be around her long to realize that she is a person of character and principle, always placing the interests of those less fortunate at the top of her priorities. This is especially true when considering the interests of children in her circle of influence.

It is common in the ebb and flow of life for people to remark, "They ought to help that child... or they ought to help that person." I have personally witnessed Monique take the initiative, choose the uncommon path, set aside her own interest and comfort, place her own asses on the line, and help that child or help that person.

Her actions, in my opinion, speak volumes about her concern for children and families. I can think of no other person that I would give a higher recommendation. It is a privilege to call Monique my colleague and my friend.

Respectfully Yours,

Byron Davis, Jr.
